DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-9 are pending in the application.

Specification

2. This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 3, 4, 6, 7 and 9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in alternate only. See MPEP § 608.01(n).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 2-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 2, 3 and 5-8, the term ----characterized in that ----is vague and indefinite. The applicants are suggested to use the term ----wherein -----.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "salts and cations" in claim 1 or 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

In claims 3, 4, 7 and 9, the term ---at least one ----is vague and indefinite since the actual intent is not clear. Can the mixture have dyes of more than 1 claim such as both claims 1 and 2?

Claim 7 recites the limitation "organic solvents" in claims 4-6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

In claim 8, step c), compound of formula (Ve) is mentioned and is not present in claim. Should it be (Vc) ?

Claim 9 provides for the use of aqueous solution, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

6. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

7. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kanaya ( U.S. Patent 6,482,256 ).

Kanaya discloses magenta ink sets comprising two magenta ink compositions containing specific compounds of formula (III) directed to compounds having higher color density and formula (IV) directed to compounds having lower color density as colorants ( see col. 2, line 18 to col. 3, line 46 ). Kanaya further exemplifies specific compounds of formula (IV) directed to lower color density such as (LM-13, LM-14 and LM-15) in col. 17 which are identical to the instant acid red 82 and acid red 80 compounds. Kanaya differs from the instant mixture that Kanaya uses only one compound of formula (IV) in addition to other dyes in the composition or mixture. However, Kanaya teaches that compounds of formula (IV) may be used alone or as a mixture of two or more, as the colorants used in the magenta ink composition with lower color density ( see col. 17, lines 59-63 ). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to prepare magenta ink jet comprising compounds of formula (III) and a mixture of acid red 82 and acid red 80 which are exemplified as preferred compounds within compounds of formula (IV) by Kanaya.
